THE COLONIAL ECHO

VOLUME XXXII ✻ ✻ ✻ ✻ MCMXXXIV
WILLIAMSBURG VIRGINIA

FOREWORD

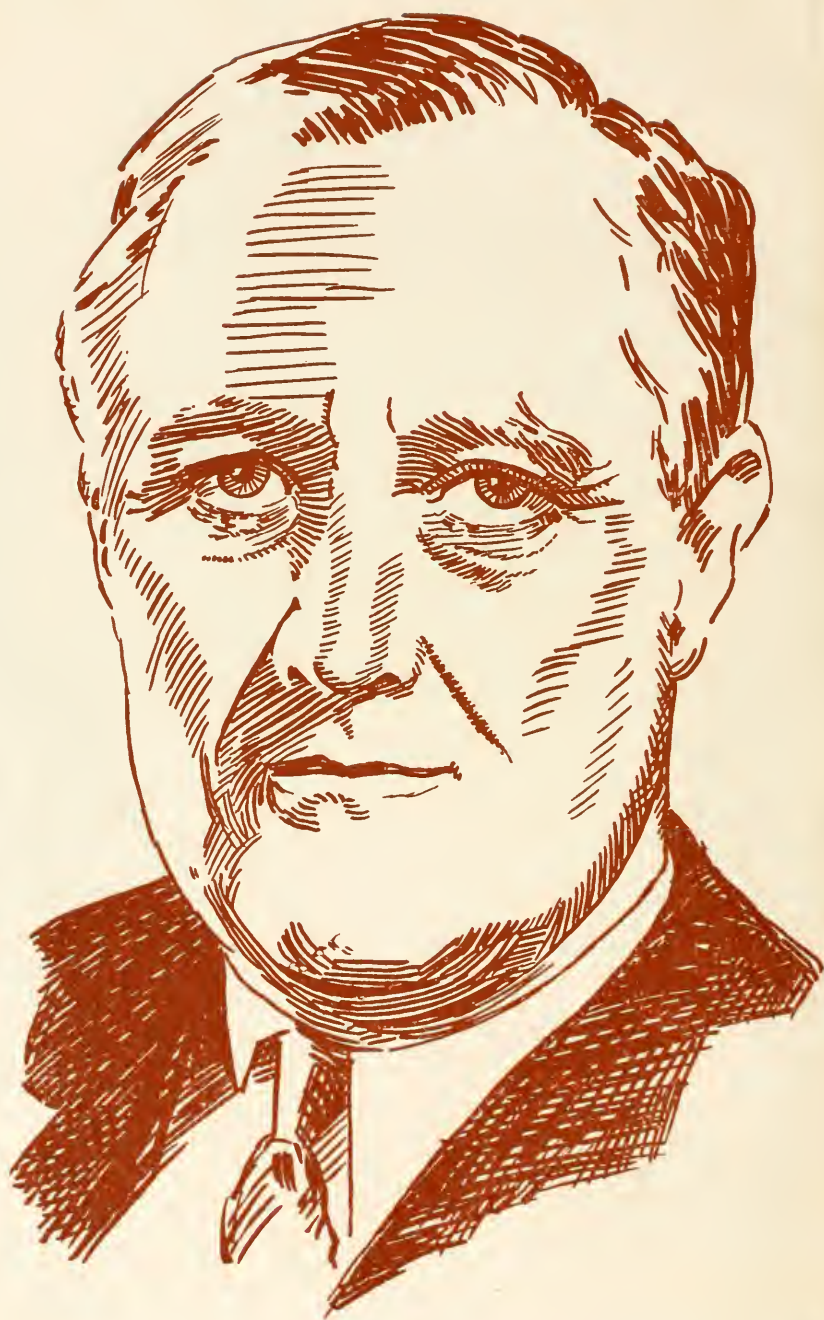

In 1929, a stock market crashed, the financial foundations of a business world crumbled and America found herself drawn deeply into the mire of a great depression. In following years, this condition throttled industrial, agricultural and commercial progress, inflicted great hardships on the American people, and checked the strides that this great nation must make.

Yet the Americans have refused to surrender. They have fought an uphill battle and now are beginning to visualize and realize a new era of rising prosperity and happiness.

President Roosevelt's statement — "Our troubles will not be over tomorrow, but we are on our way and we are headed in the right direction" — reflects the spirit and theme of the 1934 Colonial Echo. We, the members of the staff, have tried to express that spirit in paper and ink. We trust that it reflects your outlook, and that you carry on with the work which must, and will prove successful.

DEDICATION

We, the members of the staff of the Colonial Echo, dedicate this, the thirty-second volume of the Colonial Echo, to Franklin Delano Roosevelt, President of the United States, as an expression of our admiration for the work that he is doing in lifting America from the darkness of depression into the sunlight of prosperity and progress.

1933

William and Mary's Fighting Virginians, saddened by major upsets during a tough schedule, made another football chapter in Tri-color progress a success by topping a highly favored University of Richmond, 6-0, in the annual Turkey Day struggle at the Richmond Stadium. The victory gave the Indian cause a total of six victories in eleven tilts.

Head Coach Kellison, assisted by Tommy Dowler who experienced his first year of coaching here at W. & M., found the going tough at times due to injuries to regulars. The club, however, gained momentum as the season progressed and Thanksgiving Day found the outfit practically unbeatable.

Captain Gerry Quirk rounded out three years of varsity football and was awarded a berth on the Virginia Conference mythical aggregation. Billy Palese, the team's high scorer, made both the Virginia Conference team as well as the All-State combination. Joe Bridgers, center and captain-elect for 1934, was another Indian selected for All-State honors.

Football Summary

WILLIAM AND MARY, 7—ROANOKE, 6

The Indian football team ushered in the new season under the arc lights of Cary Field with a 7-6 victory over the Roanoke Maroons. The visitors opened the scoring in the first period when Petrone, their quarter back, crashed through the right side of the end line for a touchdown. In the second quarter Dale Worrall, Indian halfback, evened the score by pulling down a lateral pass from Palese and dashing around left end for the marker. Stuart put the Indians ahead by kicking the point. The Tri-colors held tenaciously to this slim lead for the remainder of the game.

WILLIAM AND MARY, 12—RANDOLPH-
MACON, 0

The Indians continued their victory march at Cary Field by defeating the rather docile Randolph-Macon eleven, 12-0. The Tri-color completely outclassed the Jackets, and at no time was there any doubt as to the outcome of the contest. Palese was the most spectacular Indian, gaining 206 yards and scoring both touchdowns.

WILLIAM AND MARY, 0—NAVY, 12

William and Mary received its first upset of the season when they lost to the powerful Navy football team, 12-0, at Annapolis. The Tri-color gave their large group of rooters plenty to cheer about, however, by offering stubborn opposition to all of Navy's offensive sallies, and by gaining a lot of ground themselves.

After a scoreless first period, Navy's powerful backs battered the Indian line in a 68-yard march down the field for a touchdown. The second Middie touchdown came in the third period in a 30 yard pass, Baumberger to Becket, across the goal line.

The dependable Billy Palese thrilled the crowd with a few long jaunts which resulted in substantial gains for the tribe. A crowd of 17,000 witnessed the fray in which the Midshipmen secured revenge for the 6-0 defeat handed them by William and Mary last year.

WILLIAM AND MARY, 0—WASHINGTON AND LEE, 7

The William and Mary Indians lost their second game of the season to Washington and Lee, at Lexington, by the score of 7-0.

The Generals slipped over their touchdown in the first few minutes of play, before either team was really warmed up. Sawyer returned Franklin's punt to the Indian 18-yard line. Then a first down coupled with an 8-yard line plunge by Mattox gave the Generals the winning marker. Mattox also kicked the extra point.

From this point on, Washington and Lee proceeded to play strictly defensive football which enabled them to keep their goal line from being crossed.

In the third period, Charlie Shade raced thirty yards to put the Tri-color in a scoring position in the Generals' 19-yard line. Palese then speared a pass to advance the ball to the 10-yard stripe, but at this point the Washington and Lee defense tightened and the William and Mary eleven lost the ball on downs.

The final Indian attack came in the last period, when Chalko of the Tri-color unleashed an aerial attack which brought the ball to the Washington and Lee 7-yard line. Here again, the Generals presented a stone wall defence and the Indians were downed.

The statistics of the game show that each team made eight first downs, but the margin of victory fell to the Generals because of their goal line stands.

WILLIAM AND MARY, 7 — V. P. I., 13

The Indians dropped their third game of the season to the V. P. I. Gobblers at Richmond, by the score of 13-7.

In this game the Indians were without the services of Palese, Shade, and Darden owing to injuries and ineligibility.

The hurly V. P. I. gridsters got off to an early lead when Al Casey ran the opening kick-off back 52 yards to the Indian 15-yard line, Hosclaw circled left end for the additional 15 yards and the score.

In the second quarter the Gobblers again displayed their power. Morgan passed to Thomas on the Indian 25-yard line, and Thomas kicked to the 16-yard marker before Dale Worrall brought him down from behind. Casey, the triple-threat V. P. I. back then circled left end for the first down. Hosclaw scored for the second time on a line plunge, and Negri kicked the extra point.

The Indians pushed their score over in the third period after Chalko's passes had advanced the ball to the V. P. I. 5-yard line. Chalko then gave the ball to Worrall on a spinner, and Dale fought his way through the line for the touchdown. Stewart kicked the extra point.

The Indians made their final spectacular effort with one minute to play. With the ball on their 5-yard line, Dale Worrall, who was the Indians' outstanding performer, twisted his way through the entire Gobbler team, but tripped over one of his own team mates after he had run 50 yards. The Gobblers succeeded in holding the fighting Tri-color for the remaining few seconds of play.

WILLIAM AND MARY, 37 — GUILFORD, 7

The battered Indians broke their three-game losing streak by defeating Guilford on the following Saturday, 37-7.

The Indians scored in every quarter. Yerkes and

Yerkes

LeGrande

Stewart

Junie Smith scored twice, while Blaker and Bergin accounted for the other two tallies.

Guilford's score came in the third period when a partially blocked punt was recovered by Guilford on the Indian 12-yard line. Then after two fruitless line backs, Newman passed to Turner for the touchdown.

The Indians started their parade of touchdowns near the end of the first quarter, when Yerkes crashed around left for 7 yards and a score. In the second quarter Yerkes again scored from the 20-yard line, shaking off five Guilford tackles as he ploughed off tackle. Later a long pass, Smith to Bryant, put the ball on the 5-yard line and Smith carried it over. From this point on, the Indians scored at will. Coach Kellison used practically his whole squad in this game, giving his regulars a much needed rest.

In the Indian backfield Yerkes and Smith were outstanding while Upson and Henderson were the mainstays in the game.

WILLIAM AND MARY, 12—GEORGETOWN, 6

Junie Smith intercepted a triple lateral pass to run 90 yards for a touchdown that enabled William and Mary to defeat Georgetown, 12-6.

The interception broke up a 64-yard march by the Hilltoppers and put the game on ice for the Indians.

Georgetown scored in the first quarter via the aerial route when Costello passed to Parcells from the 32-yard line.

The Tri-color evened the count in the second quarter when Charles Shade tossed a pass to Murray who was in the end zone with no one covering him.

Palese was the most consistent ground gainer on the field, breaking loose time after time to put the ball deep into the enemies' territory only to be lost to the Hilltoppers by costly fumbles. Palese got loose in the third period, after shaking off almost the entire Georgetown team, going 54 yards before being brought down on the Georgetown 14-yard line.

Darden

Shade

Worrall

The game ended with the ball on the Indian 10-yard line, after Georgetown had valiantly fought their way down the field. A desperate attempt to score failed when a pass to Costello was just incomplete.

WILLIAM AND MARY, 14—V. M. I., 0

Billy Palese ran wild against V. M. I., smashing through the cadet defense twice to lead the Indians to a glorious 14-0 victory.

The first touchdown, which came in the second period was the result of a 24-yard run which started as an off-tackle play. Billy ripped through into the secondary, ducked his head and ran through the middle of the V. M. I. backfield to score easily. The second touchdown resulted when Shade tossed a short pass to Palese who put on steam and breezed around his own right end to elude the cadet flankmen and leave the V. M. I. secondary flat-footed as he scored standing up.

The game was harder fought than the score indicates, V. M. I. making five first downs to the Indians' three, but the cadet's ground-gaining was in the middle of the field in their own territory. Whenever the ball advanced into the Indian territory the William and Mary defense tightened and repulsed every attack.

The play of Bob Henderson and Bryant's punting was instrumental in the scoring of both touchdowns.

Billy Smith was outstanding for the Cadets, running, punting and passing with equal skill.

EMORY AND HENRY, 25—WILLIAM AND MARY, 6

The Emory and Henry Wasps smeared the Indians 25-6, giving them the worst licking received by William and Mary in Virginia for the past five seasons.

Indian fumbles and poor punting kept them in hot water for the greater part of the game. The Indian line also proved to be woefully weak.

Chalko

Upson

Bergin

The Tri-color succeeded, however, in crossing the Wasp goal line, a feat no other team had accomplished up to this time.

The first touchdown came after four minutes of play when Emory and Henry recovered a fumble on the Indian 24-yard line and from this point Sim and Kegeley alternated in carrying the ball, Kegeley finally streaking around right end for the score. Passes to Prapps, combined with Kegeley's brilliant running accounted for all of Emory and Henry's scores.

The Indians got going for the first time in the third quarter when a 60-yard march ended in a touchdown, Chalko going over from the 5-yard marker.

The game ended with the Indians passing desperately.

For the Indians Chalko and Palese were the only players up to par, Chalko's passes resulted in most of the gains. While Palese led the running attacks, doing exceptionally well considering that the Emory and Henry defense was concentrated on him.

Marshall, Kegeley, and Propps were outstanding for the Wasps.

WILLIAM AND MARY, 7 — DAVIDSON, 12

The Davidson Cats clawed the Indians, 12-7, to spoil a perfect Homecoming day for 5,000 spectators.

The game started in a spectacular fashion when Mackerall ran the kickoff back for 70 yards to the William and Mary 25-yard line. Then a pass, a penalty, and two line bucks put the ball on the 1-yard line where Wingfield crossed the Indian goal on a fake reverse.

Billy Palese brought the spectators to their feet on the next play when he caught the kick-off and flitted like a ghost through the entire Davidson team for 80 yards before finally being hauled down from behind on the Wildcat 20-yard line. This great run went for naught when the Indians fumbled on the next play.

In the middle of the second period the Indians marched 48-yards to the Wildcat 28-yard line. Then Stumpy Bryant shot a pass to Emil Johnson for the score. Stewart kicked the goal to give the Tri-color a one point lead.

The Wildcats scored the winning tally on two passes, Macherall to Morgan, and then Macherall to Wingfield for the touchdown.

For the Indians Billy Palese starred as usual in the backfield, while Henderson, Spack and Johnson were outstanding in the line.

Macherall and Wingfield did most of the clawing for the cats.

WILLIAM AND MARY, 6 -- RICHMOND, 0

William and Mary rated as the under dog, turned savagely on the highly touted Richmond Spiders in the annual Turkey Day classic, upsetting the dope to win by the score of 6-0.

The Indians showed a complete reversal of form, playing aggressive, heads up ball the whole route. The team worked smoothly, clicking off plays with machine-like precision.

The Spider attack never had a chance against the fast-charging Indian forward wall, and the Richmond attack never advanced within the Indian 35-yard line. The Indian backfield with a whole new assortment of plays, time and again ripped through to the Richmond goal line only to fumble or to be penalized for off-side. Billy Palese after playing brilliantly was injured and forced to leave. Stumpy Bryant adequately filled his shoes by repeated long runs through the Spider defense.

On a neatly executed pass Bryant crashed through the Spider line, eluded the secondary to run 38 yards to score standing up.

The William and Mary eleven played inspired ball, it being an injustice to pick out any individual stars.

Chaltain and Hope were outstanding for the Spiders.

Basketball Summary

The William and Mary Basketball team engaged in a thirteen - game schedule, winning four and losing the other nine. The team was handicapped by the failure of Captain Gallinant and Litwin to return to school. Jackie Lembeck was chosen to lead the Tri-color and turned in a steady performance throughout the season in spite of injuries.

One of the bright spots in the Indian team's performance was the second Richmond game. Defeated at Richmond, February 3, 27-24, the Indians came back on their home court on February 20 to defeat Richmond, 27-25. This game proved to be the most colorful of the season. With the University of Richmond leading, 21-17 midway on the second period, William and Mary, led by Blaker, rallied to tie the score at 21-21. A minute later Blaker sank a side-shot, to give the Indians a lead they never lost. Captain Lembeck followed this score by sinking two foul shots making the score 27-23, in favor of the Tri-color. Leverton, who starred for the Spiders, put this team within a field goal of tying the count when he sank a difficult shot from the sideline. Then, as the din of the crowd's shouts drowned the final whistle, Greene of Richmond sank a basket from mid-court which apparently tied the count. The contest had officially ended, however, and the scorers, including the University of Richmond's representatives, were leaving the floor when the final goal was made.

Emory and Henry, the only team besides V. M. I. to defeat the Indians twice, brought with them Glenn Roberts. The sensational center scored 46 points in the series, one less than the entire Indian team scored in both games. In the first game at Emory, the Indians were defeated 43-29, while in the Williamsburg game the Wasps again were victorious, 36-18.

In their home games, the Indians came out on top winning four and losing two. Roanoke, Davidson, Guilford, and Richmond were defeated on the home court, while Emory and Henry and V. M. I. were the only two teams to vanquish the Indians at Blow Gym.

Besides Captain Lembeck, Blaker and Franklin were the mainstays of the Indian quintet. They were consistent scorers and played a good ball at all times. Elmore, Crist, Wilson, and Casagrande also proved themselves worthy of mention.

THIS YEAR'S PROSPECTS

There are many new faces on this year's team due to the graduation of Captain Andy Christenson, Carter, "Lefty" White, Buck La Croix and Buster Bradley, the failure to return to school of Milt Gallinant, George Callison, and the withdrawal of Captain-elect Joe Stankus. This year's team has been built around the four veterans, "Waddy" Stewart, Junie Smith, Charlie Shade, and ——— Jester, the "holdovers," "Buckwheat" Stewart, Larry Sanders, Billy Palese, John Sullivan, and Bob Nugent and the recruits from last year's Fresh team, "Rabbit" Marable, Hutz Blaker, Dixie Moore, Jimmy Savedge and Owen Elliot.

The withdrawal from school of Joe Stankus was a severe blow to the Indian cause. The only weak spot on the club is the pitching and with Coach Kellison juggling his three pitchers around so as to use Elliot against the stronger teams and with Bill Scott teaching the hitters a few tricks the team should turn in many victories.

SUMMARY OF 1933 BASEBALL SEASON

The 1933 edition of the William and Mary baseball team hung up an enviable record that will live long in the annals of sportdom at the College.

Faced with a season that called for the playing of 22 games the Indians swung into action against Drexel on March 29 and proceeded to make an auspicious start by trouncing the Pennsylvanians. The W. & L. Generals next fell under the tomahawk of the Indians in a hard game on Cary Field, 3-0. In this game Carter White, Indian southpaw, narrowly missed being placed in the Baseball Hall of Fame, but a scratch hit by Jarrett robbed him of that honor. The Virginia Cavaliers had the Indian sign on the Kellisonmen and gave them the first set-back of the season. The Williamsburgers went to pieces in the game, the wierd brand they put up being far below their usual standard. Enraged at their defeat the Indians went on a spree and garnered ten straight victories which were due in no small part to the able pitching of Lefty White, Joe Stankus, and George Callison. The Vermont game which ended 1-0 for the Indians was a thriller from start to finish. A pitchers' duel developed between Stankus who allowed only two hits and Spicer of Vermont who kept all of the Tribe's five base hits scattered. A run by Sullivan on an error put the game on ice. The full power of the Indians was turned on Richmond on April 29 when, led by Captain Christensen the Braves took out sixteen runs and walloped out the game while "Lefty" White held the Spiders in complete check. Mowing them down like ten-pins the Tribesmen conquered Vermont, Randolph-Macon, Bridgewater, V. M. I., W. & L., Richmond, West Virginia, and Boston College. In the last-named game Stankus hurled a brilliant game, holding the highly-touted Boston boys all the way to triumph, 2-1.

On the last leg of their trip the Indians began to tire and they dropped two closely contested, heart-breakers, Holy Cross by 7-8, and Navy sunk us 4-3, as a wild ninth inning rally failed to pull the Holy Cross game out of the fire.

This brought to a close a highly gratifying season in which only 3 out of 12 games were lost, and 2 of them by one-run margins against some of the outstanding college nines of the East.

TRACK SUMMARY

The 1933 William and Mary Trackmen ran, jumped and hurdled their way to a successful season on the cinder paths.

They opened their schedule by defeating V. M. I. at Lexington by the score of 80-46. Monk Little of William and Mary turned out to be the high-scorer of the meet, taking four first places and carrying away high honors for the day. In taking first place in the javelin with a toss of 181'2" he established a new V. M. I. record for this event. The field events proved to be the winning factor for the Indians. Captain Ed Meade starred in these events by winning two first places.

The following Saturday the Tribe was taken in the Duke Blue Devils, one of the outstanding track aggregations of the East. Al Brownell, the Blue Devils' outstanding dash man led the invaders by capturing three first places, the 100 and 220 yard dashes and the low hurdles. Gerry Quirk, Monk Little and John Bacon were outstanding for the Indians. Quirk established a new W. & M. record in the shot put by a heave of 44 feet 3 1/2 inches. W. & M. led in the field events but Duke took the honors on the paths.

Washington and Lee fell an easy victim when the Scrapmen scalped them to the tune of 89-37. Monk Little ran wild in this meet. His sterling performance in winning the 100, 220 broad jumps and javelin stamped him as the outstanding trackman ever to come to William and Mary and one of the most versatile in the entire collegiate ranks.

Led by Captain Ed Meade the Indian harriers turned in their third victory by defeating V. P. I. on Cary Field. The breaking of two records and the tying of another featured the day. Flickenger shattered the pole vault record by scaling the bar at 12'7". Hart tied the present record of 25.4 in the low hurdles while Ed Meade set a new record for the shot put of 44'6 3/4".

In a meet featured by the astounding leap of Monk Little and the sensational hurdling of Art Hart the Indian submerged the E. & H. Wasps by 100-26. Little broke the broad jump record by a jump 24'2" setting a new W. & M. record as well as a new state record, as well as running the century in 9.8, the best time also in the state. Hart set a record of 24.8 seconds for the low hurdles.

On the following Saturday the Midshipmen of Annapolis sunk the Indians' canoe, 82-44. Little in the 100 and 220 and broad jump and Flickenger in the pole vault.

The Tribe closed out their season with an 81-45 win over their traditional foes, the Richmond Spiders. The meet was not as one-sided as the score indicates, the Spiders pressing the Indians closely in all events. Chaltain and Leverton of the Spiders turned in sterling performances in the hurdles. As usual Monk Little ran off with the lion's share of the honors for the afternoon, with Emil Johnson also starring in the discus with a heave of 135'8½".

PROSPECTS FOR 1934

With most of the brilliant array of 1933 performers back again the Indians are looking forward to another successful track season.

The Scrapmen will feel keenly the loss of such able men as Roberts in the distance runs, Henningway in the dashes, Flickenger in the pole vault, and Meade in the weight events. But Scrap hopes to fill their shoes with an unusually fine group of freshmen who have shown their merit in yearling meets. Among the outstanding of the men coming up from the freshman squad are Ballard, a sensational performer in the quarter and half, Plummer in the mile, Smeltzer in the hurdles, and Murray in the weight events.

Bolstered by these newcomers, Messrs. Little, Quirk, Hart, Brawley and Co., serves notice that the William and Mary track team is going some place in 1934.

SWIMMING SUMMARY

Led by Captain Ogden, lone veteran, the William and Mary swimmers lost all four meets on their schedule. All of their meets were held at Blow Gym. The team was composed mostly of Sophomores who showed promise of giving the Tri-color a strong team next year.

Although the Indians were defeated in all their meets, a constant improvement was shown in their performances. The last meet of the year, with N. C. State was only decided when the Tri-color swimmers were unable to place in the last event.

Two pool records were broken by Indian swimmers. Bill Duncan, sophomore free-style whiz broke the 100-yard record when he did it in 48 $\frac{4}{5}$ seconds in the Virginia meet. The other record was broken by the relay team composed of Warnock, Bray, LeGrande, and Duncan when they clicked off the 169 yards in 1 minute 20 $\frac{7}{5}$ seconds in the meet with N. C. State.

Ned LeGrande, Sophomore diver, was the big scorer of the year with Duncan runner-up. Other point scorers besides the record breakers were Ogden, Gave, Simpson, Yerkes, Trow, and Lessin.

FENCING SCHEDULE, 1934

March 10—V. M. I.
 March 17—Baltimore University
 March 24—Rutgers
 March 25—Seventh Regiment
 April 13, 14—Southern Conference

The men's fencing team of William and Mary under the tutelage of Tucker Jones had a remarkably successful season, having engaged in six contests and won four of them, including the meet for the Southern Intercollegiate Championship.

Prior to this meet, the team faced V. M. I. on March 4 and lost 9-8, but after this setback the William and Mary squad forged steadily forward.

The team met Rollins on March 28 and defeated them decisively 17-0, winning every match in all of three weapons. The fencers for William and Mary were MacDonald, Mack, Phillips and Matzkin.

On March 31 the four beat Lafayette College 15-2, and the men were successful over Lehigh University April 1, also winning by a score of 15-2.

On April 2, however, they lost to Rutgers University, 8-9, in a closely fought battle.

The chief event in the William and Mary fencing season came, however, when the team won the Southern Intercollegiate Fencing Tournament, which was held on April 4 and 5 at the college.

Tennis

With Captain Fink and Ed Kerner forming the nucleus, the Tri-color tennis combination faces the forthcoming season with fair hopes of a successful season. As the Echo goes to press, tentative meets have been arranged with Virginia Poly Tech, Virginia Military Institute, University of Richmond, Roanoke College, Randolph-Macon and Hampden-Sydney. Other candidates for the outfit include Norman MacLeod, Ed Schmedel and Willard Owen.

Freshman Football Summary

The William and Mary Freshman eleven completed a five game schedule, winning two games and losing the remaining three.

The Papooses opened against an experienced Norfolk Division team at Carey Field and were defeated, 7-0 in a hard fought game.

In the second game of the season, a heavy Washington and Lee team defeated the Freshmen, 18-6. The Washington and Lee yearlings were heralded as the best freshman team that Lexington had seen in years, but a much improved Papoose eleven made a game of it all the way.

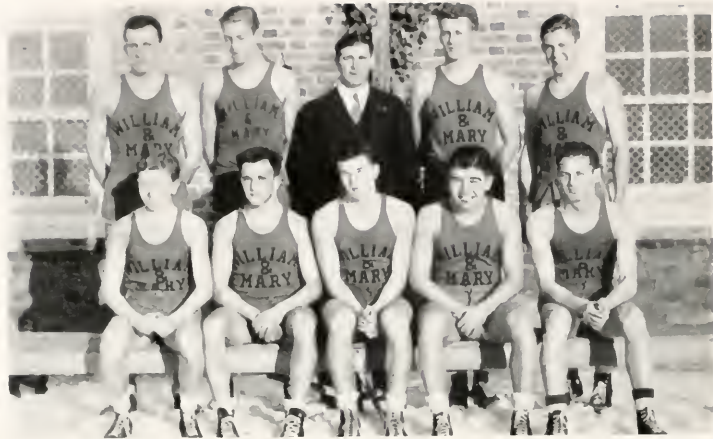

The Freshmen rolled up their first victory at the expense of the V. M. I. "rats," defeating them at Carey Field, 13-0. An 80-yard run by Varner of William and Mary was the outstanding play of the game.

On the following Saturday, the Papooses defeated the Louisburg College eleven, 8-6. Pinch, Zable, and Hadke starred for the Freshmen.

In the final game of the season the Indian Yearlings went down to ignominious defeat, the Richmond Spiders winning, 25-0. The lone bright spots for the Tri-Color were Pinch and Hadtke who looked like good varsity material all year.

Freshman Basketball Summary

The William and Mary Freshman basketball team engaged in games, winning and losing.

The Freshmen opened their season in championship fashion, swamping Hampton High at Blow Gym, 29-12. Pinch and Findlay were the satellites for the Frosh, the former scoring 20 points.

The Freshmen lost their first game to Richmond by the close margin of 29-25. Going into the second half with a substantial lead, the Indian yearlings continually relinquished the ball to the Spiders after missing long shots. Pinch and Findlay were again outstanding, the latter accounting for 9 of the Indian points.

The Freshmen received their most severe jolt of the season when the Raymond Riordan School of New York defeated them 48-15 at Jefferson Gym. The Riordan School boys displayed an airtight defense and uncanny skill at long-range shots to pile up an early lead.

After defeating Louisburg 24-15 the Freshmen met the Richmond Spiders for the second time as a preliminary to the Varsity-Richmond game, losing 37-24.

Pinch and Findlay were the outstanding stars.

William and Mary's Varsity Hockey Team enjoyed a very successful year, culminating the season with two victories, three ties, and only one defeat to mar its record.

The opening game was played against the Alumnae on November 3, on Barrett Field. The Varsity easily defeated a team made up of such former stars as: "Mike" Brame, Curly Sinclair, Kitty Cusberly, Pat Lowrey, and Coach Barksdale. Both teams showed a lack of play and a need of practice, but put up a pretty good show, despite the fact. At the close of the game the score was 5-1, each goal represented a hard fought battle, with the Varsity a little better in the five out of six times. The scorers for the Varsity were Edwards 2, Hudak 1, and Holliday 2.

The next important event was the Virginia Field Hockey Tournament held at Westhampton on November 10 and 11. The first day of the tournament William and Mary played Sweet Briar and defeated them 1-0. This was a very exciting game, characterized by clean and excellent passes, and very speedy dashes. The second day of the tournament, William and Mary played Westhampton and held them to a scoreless tie. This was a very hard fought game, well contested in every section of the field. At the conclusion of this tournament Berger was put on the All State team, and Holliday, Brown, and Lafitte were placed on the Reserve.

On November 20, Westhampton returned the visit and brought a team composed of Juniors and Seniors to Williamsburg to play a William and Mary Junior-Senior team. This game was one of the most exciting of the season, very fast, with numerous clever and fast dashes and passes. At the end of the game the score was tied, 1-1, both goals having been made in the last minute of play.

Shortly after this the William and Mary squad started out on its northern trip. On November 24 they encountered Bryn Mawr there, and received their only defeat of the season, 3-0. This was quite evidently Bryn Mawr's game from the start, but William and Mary put up a noble fight, and played an unusually good game. The next day, November 25, Swarthmore and William and Mary met on the field to battle to the finish of a 1-1 tie.

The first game, with the Alumnae, on February 10, was won by the Varsity with the score of 34-17. At no time during the game did the Alumnae seriously threaten the Varsity, this game served merely to give some much needed opening practice for the season.

On February 17, the Varsity encountered Farmville to win by a score of 23-18. This was a hard fought game throughout the scores remaining very close. William and Mary managed to gain the lead, however, and retained it until the final whistle.

February 19 saw the girls' basketball team at Sweet Briar where they walked away with another victory, 35-21. This game was one-sided all the way through, with very little doubt in the minds of the onlookers as to the outcome.

On February 24, Panzer School of Physical Education, of East Orange, N. J., brought its women's varsity basketball team to Williamsburg to meet the William and Mary team. This was one of the hardest fought games of the season, William and Mary held the lead throughout the first half, but Panzer put on a spurt, gained the lead, and managed to hold it until the final whistle when the score was: Panzer, 30; William and Mary, 27.

On March 10, Savage School of New York journeyed to Williamsburg to encounter the varsity sextet. This was a battle, both verbal and physical, to the finish. William and Mary co-eds put up a stiff fight, however, and came out on the best side of a 30-27 score.

FRESHMAN HOCKEY SQUAD

Freshman Sports

The sports in which the Co-ed Freshman come to the fore are hockey and basketball. In these two sports they have their own teams and schedules, entirely independent from the varsity squad and teams. This year was an unusually successful one as far as basketball was concerned but the hockey team lost its only game to St. Catharines by a score of 4-1.

The Freshman Basketball team played three games and won them all. The first game was with the Norfolk Division, here, on February 14. On February 27, in Richmond, the Freshmen encountered St. Catharines whom they defeated in a fast and exciting game by a score of 33-30.

The return game with the Norfolk Division was played on March 7, in Norfolk. This was a fast moving game, William and Mary managed to come out on the best side of 40-38 score, to conclude the season.

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL SQUAD

FENCING SQUAD

Fencing was officially introduced into the sporting curriculum for women at William and Mary this year. An unofficial match with Panzer, which William and Mary won, and an official match with N. Y. U., which William and Mary lost, 3-9, comprised the schedule. This was an unexpectedly good showing against such experienced fencers as the team from N. Y. U. William and Mary is a member of the Intercollegiate Women's Fencing Association and sent representatives to New York on April 14 to enter the matches conducted by the association.

Despite the recent advent of this sport on the campus, it promises to be very popular. A squad was chosen this year members from it were picked to engage in the bouts against the outside schools. Ann Edwards was the captain, Nancy Horn and Dixie Sterling as other members of the usual team, they were aided at different times by other members of the squad.

LACROSSE SQUAD

LIFE SAVING CORPS

Swimming

There is no varsity team which engages in an inter-scholastic schedule, but instead emphasis is placed on teaching non-swimmers to swim. Swimming is a compulsory part of the athletic training for the co-eds and all are required to be able to keep afloat before leaving the physical education department.

The American National Red Cross Life Saving tests are given each year at the college, and each time those who have previously acquired their Senior badge have the opportunity of passing their Examiner's test, the highest award possible for Life Savers.

This year for the first time a picked squad from William and Mary will engage in a telegraphic meet with all the other women's colleges in the country that wish to do so.

Omicron Delta Kappa was founded with the purpose of bringing together in one body, for the general good of the institution, all leaders in various forms of college activities. Membership is restricted to men. It recognizes eminence in scholarship, athletics, campus life, literary and forensic attainments, and college publications. It is recognized as one of the highest honors that can be conferred upon an undergraduate student.

The Flat Hat Club Society is the oldest living college organization in America, having been founded at the College of William and Mary in 1750, thus antedating the Phi Beta Kappa fraternity by twenty-six years. On its rolls may be found the names of Jefferson and others of the college's famous alumni, including the long list of notables in the Spotswood Club of Old Virginia.

The Y. M. C. A. at the college has for a long time done an important work in standing for a high spiritual life among its members and working throughout the college for the advancement of Christianity. The meetings of the association are often addressed by the ministers of the town, by members of the faculty, and by visiting speakers. Through this organization chapel services are conducted during the school year.

The Y. W. C. A. at William and Mary was formed in the spring of 1920 and has been growing ever since. It has become a strong influence on the campus. Under its auspices are held regular meetings, both secular and devotional, through which interest is aroused in affairs of importance in the world, charities, and in missions. The association plans formal entertainments for the pleasure of the students and organizes trips to neighboring places of interest. Membership in the organization for a year gives one activity credit.

The William and Mary Dramatic Club achieved success in a new field this year. On November 18, 1933, when William and Mary held its annual Home-Coming, the program included a parade of floats representing various organizations. A prize of ten dollars was awarded to the Dramatic Club for its original and attractive entry. The float was a representation of the Hallam Players, who came from England in 1752 to play in Williamsburg at the Second Theater in America. In a coach drawn by horses were Louis Hallam, Mrs. Hallam, and Louis, Jr., all members of the company. They were driven by a Negro coachman, and accompanied by a town crier who heralded their arrival. Miss Althea Hunt, assisted by members of the Dramatic Club, planned this prize winning float.

THE CAMPUS

Campus Section

The school year of '33-'34 . . . a year in which many events occurred . . . to be enjoyed only by those who are faithfuls of the Collegiana environment . . . such as "grown-up" freshmen; soph grinds; reserved juniors; lofty seniors, and stick-to-it five year men . . . but, anyhow, we'll attempt to offer a brief resume of the year, and if you should have been mentioned, and are not, blame it on the laundry. . . .

* * * *

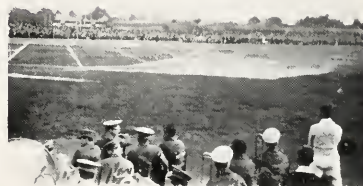

We arrived here anywheres from the 10th of September on . . . and immediately noticed a comparative lack of frosh men, which was to be expected . . . the football men who arrived on the first of the month had already become fed up with the hot weather which the remainder of the winter enrollment suffered for a week or so . . . the Y's introduced the frosh to each other and we realized that although the season was young, the class as a whole was all right . . . many were introduced to their first night football game when Coach Jawm Kellison's charges took Roanoke over the traces by a single point, 7-6 . . . the frosh outfit began workouts . . . the customary football guess contest in the Hat maintained its rep as an institution . . . Cardillo was on the job, piloting the destines of the Flat Hat . . . and the Indians took Randolph-Macon over, 12-0 . . . the frats made a good move by announcing that the deferred rushing season would be abolished and that fall rushing would take place in November . . . the sororities pledged 98 girls after a rocky session . . . with Theta taking the lead with fifteen pledges . . . we learned that the William and Mary Flight Club took first place in the National Loeing Flight Competition for the year 1932-33, Harvard taking second place and the University of Minnesota third . . . Otto Johnson was named to head the Flight School, succeeding Colonel Popp, under whose direction the school progressed in fine style in the two previous years . . . the football outfit lost to Navy 12-0 in a hard fought battle . . . Dot Beck was named lacrosse captain . . . some of us had the pleasure of attending the wedding in Bruton of Betty Chambers and Ted George . . . Mortor-board put over the first informal co-ed dance . . . first news of the C.C.C. activities in local sections came to light in the form of a camp to be established on William and Mary property . . . the activities will include the forming of a national park . . . Nancy Delashmutt was elected to the judicial council and she was nominated to head the group . . . Upshur was elected president of Omicron Delta Kappa and the Flat Hat Club Society . . . Bob Kelly and Betty Fieser met in a revolving door and have been going around together ever since . . . Washington and Lee topped the Tricolor 7-0 . . . and the frosh lost to Norfolk Division by the same count . . . the Institute of International Affairs convened here . . . V. P. I. took the locals over, 13-7, in a Richmond tilt . . . Homecoming Day plans were formulated with a student committee co-operating to make a swell affair . . . Bob Land was elected debate manager . . . the journalistic representatives of W. and M. went to the V. I. P. A. convention at the University of Richmond, Upshur's Literary Magazine taking second place in its class for the sole Tricolor conquest . . . Squires, Stankus, Silverman, Flynn, M. Smith, Leitch, Gordon, Loeffler, Abbitt, Wright, Lang, Lembeck, Wiley, Alperin and Holl were bid to Phi Kappa Phi, honorary scholastic fraternity . . . Carl Mitson was elected president of the frosh class . . . we took Guilford over the traces, 37-7 . . . George Mason was elected as soph representative to the men's honor council . . . Phi Beta Kappa bid eleven to membership, including Alperin, Clark, Brooks Flickenger, Flynn, Kelly, Lang, Loeffler, Silverman, M. Smith, Wiley and Wright . . . Dr. Sidney B. Hall spoke to the college at convocation . . . both football outfits took V. M. I. over, 14-0 and 12-0 . . . the Flat Hat came out with seven columns for a couple of issues . . . too bad the students don't kick in with more activity tickets and keep the paper that size . . . it was the best ever put out here . . . Homecoming Day was celebrated in excellent style . . . the best ever with parades, fraternity house decorated . . . formal dances with Johnny Brown and his team . . . we lost to Davidson, 12-7, in a swell battle, but the alumni left town convinced that Richmond would be taken over . . . the frosh football outfit beat Louisburg, 8-6, and the Indianette hockey team took a sweet victory, 1-0, from Sweet Briar . . . and tied with Westhampton, 0-0 . . . Emory and Henry trounced us, 25-7, and Kappa Sigma won the interfraternity basketball crown by beating the S. P. E.'s . . . Phi Kappa Tau led with the largest number of pledges in the fall rushing . . . fourteen sewed up with 98 men being pledged . . . the C.C.C. camp was installed on campus property . . . another informal co-ed dance in Blow . . . Omicron Delta Kappa tapped eight men, including Dr. Howard and Professor Small, Lembeck, Spack, Warner, Palese, Mapp and Stankus . . . the seniors got a few privileges . . . Carpenter and O'Flaherty defeated Price and Korb in the annual frosh debate . . . one of the swellest victories in William and Mary history was won by the Indian football outfit when Richmond, heavily favored, was soundly beaten, 6-0 . . . they didn't get within our 36-yard line, which is one yard better than a similar case portrayed by Believe-It-Or-Not Ripley . . . the William and Mary Flight Club was bid to membership in the National Aeronautical Association . . . Phoenix defeated Philomatheans in reading and oratory, but the latter topped their literary society rivals in declamation competition . . . the Dramatic Club put over "Hotel Universe" in most impressive style with Clarke, Child and Land taking a good deal of the spotlight . . . Kitty Chiswell was elected president of the W. S. G. A. . . . and Joe Bridgers was elected captain of the 1934 football aggregation . . . we got the glad news that we were to be extended an extra couple of days for Christmas vacation . . . the publications were progressing in fair enough style, the Flat Hat, under Cardillo and Chambers, turning out the best numbers in history; the Lit magazine offering their usual good editions, and the Colonial Echo bothering senior men by making them struggle into tuxedos for their pictures . . . John Penello was elected to the 3-3-3 Athletic Committee . . . and a few of the New Yorkers began plans for a Christmas William and Mary reunion at the Hotel New Yorker . . . an event which took place and fulfilled expectations of all those who attended . . . after we came back from the holidays, the next chief event of importance was the election of Johnny Mapp (of Accomac) to the editorship of the Flat Hat . . . since, he has been turning out the best Hat of them all . . . we next received news that the PWA had granted a $650,000 loan to the college for a number of new buildings, including a stadium . . . as this copy goes to press, the work has not been begun but maybe by the time the class of 1938 arrives in good old Billsburg, there will be something to show for the loan . . . the word arrives that the Duke of Gloucester street is about to be torn up and replaced by something of an ancient atmosphere such as cobblestones and the like . . . we hope to see it completed by June . . . the Wythe Law Club held their first semi-annual moot trial with Dr. Pate acting in the role of judge . . . the basketball outfit, captained by Jack Lembeck, got off to a bad start with losses to Georgetown and Virginia but topped the Roanoke Maroons, 41-40, to break into the scoring column . . . and speaking of basketball, Chi Omega took top honors in the annual sorority basketball tournament . . . the frosh also stepped into the cage lime-light with a win over Hampton High, but lost to the Norfolk Division outfit . . . and then we all repaired to the library and prepared for the final examinations, which concluded activities until we registered on the second of February . . . Harold Gatty, noted flyer, addressed the students on the seventh . . . and Mrs. Franklyn D. Roosevelt visited the campus . . . we learned that Louis Carner was extended an invitation by Hiram Bingham to become a member of a nation-wide committee on Civil Aeronautics . . . the college was saddened by the deaths of Dr. Krebs and Fred Troyano . . . the cast of the King's Revellers began rehearsals . . . Jack Wardlaw and his orchestra provided the music for Mid-Winter formals held on the 9th and 10th . . . the basketball outfit topped Davidson but lost to our traditional rivals, Richmond, in a close tilt in Richmond, 27-24 . . . the swimmers began preparations for the season with Ogden leading the aggregation . . . the frosh lost to Richmond, 29-25 . . . W. S. G. A. elected a few officers with Betty Johnson as Chairman of the Honor Council; Adele Stephenson, secretary of the executive council; Doris Van Dien, secretary of the judicial council; Ann Cummings, junior member of the judicial council; and Jane Lewis, soph representative of the Honor Council . . . the welcome news arrived on campus that the Federal Government would aid students on the campus by providing funds and jobs for needy students . . . Pauline Stanley was elected president of the judicial council . . . The King's Revellers was put over by swell style, including all kinds of entertainment . . . even though we didn't see the Stooges put on the swell act they had planned . . . Arabelle Hubbard took the lead in a presentation of "The Swan," another player's success . . . the College of William and Mary celebrated her 241st anniversary by radio talks and meetings . . . Dr. Howard broadcasted from WRVA and many distinguished guests attended the William and Mary anniversary banquet held in Washington . . . the debators prepared for strenuous seasons, Johnny Mapp and Barrett Horton taking a most successful trip to northern regions . . . Gentry was elected head of Phoenix . . . the co-eds put over the usual successful dances with reliable Jelly Leftwich providing the melodies . . . the State Legislature met in the old capital of Virginia down the Duke of Gloucester Street a ways and students had a chance to see plenty as well as crash the movies . . . twelve frosh were taken for a little ride down Jamestown way by the Tribunal . . . Senator Barkley of Kentucky spoke in Phi Beta Kappa Hall on the 22nd at a joint meeting of the Sons of the American Revolution Societies . . . Fisher, Van Oot, Council and Lang doing the work . . . the ball tossers began the season against Vermont by dividing a doubleheader, but Washington and Lee topped the locals . . . three ball games, which followed a five-day Easter vacation.

(These are the guys who picked you. We feel that the group is representative of the student body in that it contains three student body presidents, the editor of the Literary Magazine, the president of the senior class, the president of Mortarboard, the president of the Judicial Council, the past president of Barrett Hall, the president of the Russian Club (along with McGrub who's going thru on the 5-Year Plan) etc. We hope that the results are taken in the spirit they are given, and if you don't like what they picked, blame the court, not your editor.
